Classroom Happenings

Updated Elem/MS math this year.

Looking at HS math curriculum.

PWR, we are piloting a work based learning program the last quarter with two of our students. One is doing a traditional work based learning and the other is doing an internship with ASU.

Current vacancies are MS English and 3-5 English, we have filled the high school English, high school business, and middle school business.

Continuing to do walkthroughs which are tied to teacher evaluations. We do both formal and informal, but all of them go through RANDA. I will get evaluations done in May.

Students are partnering with students in Germany on Mondays and Thursdays. They will continue to work on their projects presented to them by ALSCO Uniforms and Kember Water Control Systems. Both our students and the students from Germany will visit ALSCO on May 4th.

We have begun working on the schedule for next year.
