Payments: Your payment must be sent to the payment address shown on your statement and must be received by 5 p.m. local time at that address to be credited as of the day it is received. Payments we receive after 5 p.m. will not be credited to your Account until the next day. Payments must also: (1) include the remittance coupon from your statement; (2) be made with a single check drawn on a US bank and payable in US dollars, or with a negotiable instrument payable in US dollars and clearable through the US banking system; and (3) include your Account number. If your payment does not meet all of the above requirements, crediting may be delayed and you may incur late payment fees and additional interest charges. Electronic payments must be made through an electronic payment method payable in US dollars and clearable through the US banking system. Please do not send post-dated checks as they will be deposited upon receipt. Any restrictive language on a payment we accept will have no effect on us without our express prior written approval. We will re-present to your financial institution any payment that is returned unpaid.

Permission for Electronic Withdrawal: (1) When you send a check for payment, you give us permission to electronically withdraw your payment from your deposit or other asset account. We will process checks electronically by transmitting the amount of the check, routing number, account number and check serial number to your financial institution, unless the check is not processable electronically or a less costly process is available. When we process your check electronically, your payment may be withdrawn from your deposit or other asset account as soon as the same day we receive your check, and you will not receive that cancelled check with your financial account statement. If we cannot collect the funds electronically we may issue a draft against your deposit or other asset account for the amount of the check. (2) By using Pay By Computer, Pay By Phone or any other electronic payment service of ours, you give us permission to electronically withdraw funds from the deposit or other asset account you specify in the amount you request. Payments using such services of ours received after 8:00 p.m. MST may not be credited until the next day.

How We Calculate Your Balance: We use the Average Daily Balance (ADB) method (including new transactions) to calculate the balance on which we charge interest on your Account. Call the Customer Care number on page 3 for more information about this balance computation method and how resulting interest charges are determined. The method we use to calculate the ADB and interest results in daily compounding of interest.

If you pay more than your Standard Balance: Any payments that are greater than the billed Standard Balance will first apply to other Standard Balance purchases, including unbilled charges, then to any Payment Terms balance. You can view unbilled charges through your Online Account at americanexpress.com. Any excess payment originally applied to Payment Terms balances will be moved to any future Standard Balance that is established, prior to the expiration of the Payment Terms period for such Payment Terms balance.

Payment Interest: Your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing period. We will not charge you interest on purchases if you pay your entire Standard Balance by the due date each month. Payment Terms purchases will be included in the Standard Balance after their Payment Terms period has expired. We will not charge you interest on Payment Terms purchases during their Payment Terms period. We will begin charging interest on cash advances on the transaction date.

Foreign Currency Charges: If you make a Charge in a foreign currency, we will convert it into US dollars on the date we or our agents process it. We will choose a conversion rate that is acceptable to us for that date, unless a particular rate is required by law. The conversion rate we use is no more than the highest official rate published by a government agency or the highest interbank rate we identify from customary banking sources on the conversion date or the prior business day. This rate may differ from rates in effect on the date of your charge. Charges converted by establishments (such as airlines) will be billed at the rates such establishments use.

Credit Balance: A credit balance (designated CR) shown on this statement represents money owed to you. If within the six-month period following the date of the first statement indicating the credit balance you do not request a refund or charge enough to use up the credit balance, we will send you a check for the credit balance within 30 days if the amount is $1.00 or more.

Credit Reporting: We may report information about your Account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your Account may be reflected in your credit report.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: Describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 2 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we may not follow these procedures and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we will do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we will tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. We will investigate your inquiry and will either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We will not try to collect the amount in question.
 - The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
 - While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
 - We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.
- After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:
- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
 - If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

About Trailing Interest

You may see interest on your next statement even if you pay the new balance in full and on time and make no new charges. This is called "trailing interest". Trailing interest is the interest charged when, for example, you didn't pay your previous balance in full. When that happens, we charge interest from the first day of the billing period until we receive your payment in full. You can avoid paying interest on purchases by paying your balance in full and on time each month. Please see the "When we charge interest" sub-section in your Card Member Agreement for details.

IMPORTANT NOTICES*Notice of Important Changes to Your Amazon Business or Amazon Business Prime Card Account

American Express' U.S. Small Business co-brand card relationship with Amazon is ending. Your Amazon Business Card or Amazon Business Prime Card ("Card") will be replaced with an Amazon co-branded credit card ("Replacement Card") issued by U.S. Bank. We expect that this will take place on August 14th, 2026 ("Replacement Date"). Beginning on the Replacement Date, you will be subject to U.S. Bank terms and conditions.

In certain situations, your Card account may not be transferred to U.S. Bank. If that is the case, we will contact you with additional details. Please note that changes to certain Card Member features and benefits will be affected permanently regardless of whether or not your Card account is transferred.

Before the Replacement Date, you may continue to use your Card for purchases at Amazon and other American Express accepting merchants. You will also continue to receive the same Card features and benefits, but certain Card Membership features and benefits will be affected as specifically outlined below.

You will receive additional communications from U.S. Bank, which will provide details about the Replacement Card and the exact Replacement Date.

You can find answers to common questions about the transfer below, along with details of how certain Card Membership features and benefits will be affected.

Can I keep using my current Card?

Yes. However, starting on the Replacement Date, you should begin using your Replacement Card issued by U.S. Bank. Additional details will be provided by U.S. Bank.

When will I receive my Replacement Card?

U.S. Bank will send more information regarding when you will receive your Replacement Card in the upcoming months.

Will I continue to earn % Back rewards ("Points") on my Card?

Yes. You will continue to earn Points on eligible purchases posted to your Card account up until August 13th, 2026. Eligible transactions posted on or after the Replacement Date will be subject to U.S. Bank terms and conditions. You will receive more information from U.S. Bank about the terms, features and benefits of the Replacement Card in the coming months.

Can I still redeem Points?

Yes. You can continue to redeem Points for eligible purchases at amazon.com and amazon.com/Business or towards charges on your statement up until August 12th, 2026 regardless of whether or not your Card account is being transferred to U.S. Bank. If your account is transferred to U.S. Bank, you can continue to redeem Points towards charges on your statement up until August 12th, 2026. However, if your Card account is remaining with American Express, you will continue to be able to redeem Points towards charges on your statement until we alert you indicating otherwise. You will receive additional information from U.S. Bank on when you will be able to redeem points with your Replacement Card. Any unredeemed Points associated with accounts transferred to U.S. Bank will be made available to the eligible U.S. Bank Replacement Card account on a one-to-one basis. You will receive additional information from U.S. Bank on rewards redemption options.

What will happen to my Amex Offers?

If you are enrolled in any Amex Offers and are being transferred to U.S. Bank, only purchases made up until August 13th, 2026 will be eligible towards earning rewards associated with the offer(s).

What are the features and benefits of the new credit card from U.S. Bank?

You will receive more information from U.S. Bank about the terms, features and benefits of the Replacement Card in the coming months.

IMPORTANT NOTICES continuedWhat will happen to the balance(s) on my Card?

Your balance will be transferred, however if you receive a statement from American Express, you must direct your payments to American Express by mail, phone, or online. Beginning on the Replacement Date, when paying American Express, you will need to use one of the following: payment by check or your bank's online bill payment service. When you receive a statement from the new issuer, U.S. Bank, you should direct your payments to U.S. Bank.

I use AutoPay and/or scheduled payments. What happens next?

Bank information and settings from AutoPay payments and scheduled payments will not be transferred to U.S. Bank. If you automatically pay your American Express bill using AutoPay, or if you schedule payments for the future using our scheduled payments option, please be aware that any payments scheduled to occur after August 16th, 2026 will be canceled by American Express if your Card account is transferred to U.S. Bank. You will receive more information about setting up AutoPay for your Replacement Card from U.S. Bank.

I use recurring billing to pay certain merchants on a regular basis. What happens when my account is transferred to U.S. Bank?

Your Replacement Card from U.S. Bank will have a new account number. As a result, if you have your Card number on file with any merchants, online shopping carts, or digital wallets, you will need to update them with your new account number. If your Card is saved in your amazon.com or amazon.com/business account, it will automatically be updated to the Replacement Card after the Replacement Date. Additional details will be provided by U.S. Bank.

What will happen to my Employee Card Members?

Beginning July 2, 2026, you will no longer be able to request additional Employee Cards on your Card account regardless of whether or not your Card account is being transferred to U.S. Bank. Employee Card Members can continue using their current Card(s). However, starting on the Replacement Date, Employee Card Members should begin using the employee card(s) provided by U.S. Bank. U.S. Bank will provide further details about employee card issuance.

Can I still request to replace the Basic Card Member?

Yes. You will continue to be able to request a replacement to the Basic Card Member of your account up until May 14th, 2026. After this date, regardless of whether or not your Card account is being transferred to U.S. Bank, you will no longer be able to request a replacement to the Basic Card Member.

Will I still be able to add an Account Manager?

Yes. You will continue to be able to request to add an Account Manager up until August 6th, 2026.

What happens to my ability to earn % Back rewards if I change my Prime Membership Status?

Changes to your Prime Membership status will continue to be reflected in the benefits on your Card until the Replacement Date. Please reference your Amazon Rewards Program Agreement for additional information.

What will happen to my online access to my Card account?

You will no longer have access to your Card account at americanexpress.com or through the American Express App once your account has been transferred to U.S. Bank. Before the Replacement Date, please download and save your Card Member Agreement, Year-End Summary, and any billing statements that you would like to keep for your records.

What happens to my account if it is not transferred to U.S. Bank?

In most cases, you will receive a notice from us before the Replacement Date notifying you if your account will not be transferred to U.S. Bank. However, in some cases, we may not be able to notify you until after the Replacement Date.

What happens if my Card account is canceled before the Replacement Date?

If your Card account is canceled by American Express or you choose to cancel your Card account before the Replacement Date, your account will not be transferred to U.S. Bank.
