School Nurse Grant- As you know funding for the current grant that helps with my salary runs out this year. I have been presented with another grant that would run from 2023-2028 that I will be applying for and hopefully will be receiving for our school. The deadline to apply was March 1, 2023 and then the award letters will be presented between April 1-7. I will keep everyone updated.

Fun Run- I will be planning to do another fun run for our students this spring. I don't have a date set yet but will meet with Mr. Stephens and Mr. Crews this month to set that up.

CPR- We received a mini wellness grant and will be using the funds to provide a CPR/First-Aid class for our juniors and seniors next month. This will allow them to become CPR certified and maintain that certification for the next two years as they go out and enter the world post-graduation.

Superintendent Report: Dave Crews reported:
Surface Water Agreement Rio Grande SDC received their assessment tax back from the county. The Rio Grande Conservation board the appeal.
Roof Estimate Our Gym roof began to delaminate, Our insurance pool brought a company out to temporary secure the roof until they can come out this summer to permanently fix it.
Electric Bus The state will backfill the additional bus costs that the EPA grant does not cover.
BEST Health Settlement We have finalized the BEST health insurance leave agreement. We did not have to pay any fees to leave BEST health.
Mascot Update I am in contact with Dr. Tiller from the Jicarilla Apache. We have schedule a zoom call to decide next steps on getting a memo of understanding from the Jicarilla Nation.
Fence Bid Attached is the bid to expand our fencing on our pre-school playground. The school board wants us to look at more of a masonry design.
Salary Comparison Attached is our teacher salary compared to the other 13 school districts in the valley. We are number 11 out of 14 on the lowest paid teacher salary schedules. I will bring a proposal at the May board meeting for some staff salary increases. We will be looking at a 4 percent change at the base due to an increase of State funding next year.
